Guidance Notes- In Year Admissions

In Year admissions are those that occur other than at the normal time of entry to school. You can submit only one application form for consideration. The application must only state preferences in the South Tyneside area ONLY. In Year admissions are not co-ordinated with neighbouring local authorities. The local authority is unable to process applications for schools where the date that the places required from, is more than 2 months from the date of the application (Service and Crown Personnel are exempt). Children who are not resident in the UK but have intention to enter the country may be asked to provide proof.

Will a Move Really be in my Child's Best Interest?

In the case of house moves or exclusion, a move of schools may be unavoidable. At other times your application to change a child's school will need careful consideration. It is vital that parents consider the effect on their child(ren) if they are considering changing schools. The last two years of Secondary School (years 10 and 11), when pupils prepare for their GCSE and other public examinations, are particularly important. It is generally considered that changing schools at this stage should be avoided if possible, because it might have a damaging effect on the examination results a pupil may achieve. At public examination level, schools do not always offer the same combination of subjects and syllabi. Examination requirements can also differ as schools do not all use the same examination boards. Problems may arise in subjects involving course work that must be sent to examination boards by set dates, and pupils who have not completed essential course work may be unable to complete the examination. Sometimes a change is considered because there has been a disagreement between the parents or child(ren) and school. There are very few differences that cannot be resolved if an issue is discussed openly and reasonably between the school and parent. The Youth Support Service can also be contacted to help parents resolve difficulties. Parents are encouraged to settle any differences with schools and only move their child(ren) to another school as a last resort

Bullying in schools

It is a statutory responsibility for all schools to have an Anti-Bullying Policy. This Policy will explain how they will respond to all reported incidents. If you are worried or concerned about bullying issues, or your child has reported bullying to you, it is important that you make contact with the Head Teacher of the school, who will ensure a member of staff follows up your enquiry, as outlined in their schools policy. Schools will endeavour to meet with you to discuss your concerns so that they can work with you and your child to resolve the issues. If the matter remains unresolved the next step would be to refer the matter through the schools complaints procedure, which would involve the Schools Governing Body.

The Procedure

The same admission arrangements apply to children moving between schools as those starting for the first time, and admission is dependent on the availability of places. If there are places available, the start date may not be immediate and would normally be within 20 school days. If a school is going through an organisational change, and increased numbers of pupils are moving to a different school, pupils will be admitted to the new school at the start of each half term. In general it is unwise to withdraw a child from one school before you have made satisfactory arrangements for admission to another and it is expected that your child will continue his/her school

Address

When considering an application for a school place, the address of the Parent/Carer with whom the child normally resides for the majority of the time will be taken into account. If the address on your application form is not your child's normal address, you must provide a Residence Order, issued by a court, if you wish that address to be considered. You should be aware that each Admission Authority reserves the right to seek proof of address and to withdraw an offer of a place, if inaccurate information or address is given on the application form. If you change your address after the submission of the form you must contact us in writing immediately, we may ask for proof of your new address.
